

Domestic Community Orientation Curriculum

Table of Contents

Needs Assessment: Identifying the Needs of Participants

Your Resettlement Agency Unit

Positive Relationships With Your Resettlement Agency

Secondary Migration

Rumors and Accurate Messages

Community Services Unit

Exploring Your New Community

Volunteering in Your Community

Housing Unit

Housekeeping Standards

Rights and Responsibilities as a Renter

Transportation Unit

Pedestrian Safety

Getting Around a Community

Employment Unit

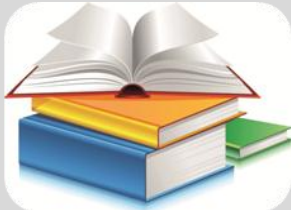

Path to Finding a Job

Marketable Skills

Learning English Unit

- The Importance of English
- Ways to Practice English

Education Unit

- Understanding the School
- Parental Involvement
- Opportunities for Adults

Health Care Unit

- Caring for Your Health in the U.S.
- Making Medical Appointments

Financial Management Unit

- Understanding the U.S. Banking System
- Budgeting, Finances, and Prioritizing

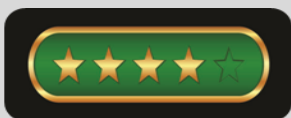

U.S. Law, Rights and Responsibilities Unit

- Personal Safety in Your New Community
- Local Laws and Customs

Cultural Adjustment Unit

- Adjusting Through the U-Curve
- Balancing Cultures and Values
- Communicating With Diverse Populations
- Changes Within the Family

Evaluation: Evaluating Understanding and Skills