

Topic: Money Management
(IOM, Overseas Processing Entity, Nepal)

Activity: Dollar Game

---

Introduction

This is a fun game aimed at energizing participants. Participants also learn about U.S. currency and the significance of women as wage-earners.

Lesson Time

10 minutes

Practice

1. Ask all participants to stand in a circle.
2. Allocate woman a value of $1 and men 50¢. Explain they have to create an amount by getting together.
3. Give the group an amount. For instance, $1.50. Participants have to make the amount by using themselves as a value and forming a circle. For example, $1.50 can be made by one male and one female participant, or by three male participants.
4. Participants who are unable to form an amount are out of the game.
5. Repeat the game, using different amounts, with participants who were able to form a group.
6. When finished, have participants share their plan with others.

Discussion

- How could you relate this to your life in the United States?

This document was developed with funding from the Bureau of Population, Refugees, and Migration, United States Department of State, but does not necessarily represent the policy of that agency and the reader should not assume endorsement by the federal government.